

Fee Schedule 2025

Funding Supports Available

NDIS: Children eligible for NDIS funding have been identified as having complex communication needs with two or more areas of delay/diagnosed disability. We accept clients that are both self-managed or plan-managed.

Private Health Insurance: It is worth checking with your private health insurance company as many policies offer rebates for Speech Pathology Services.

Medicare: Fun to talk is a registered Medicare provider. Some children may be eligible for a rebate under the Medicare Items for Complex and Chronic Conditions if they have a chronic condition that will benefit from coordinated allied health care. This plan can be discussed and arranged with your GP (if eligible).
